Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. May 25, 1899

R. J. Thompson,
Secretary, Lafayette Memorial Commission,
Auditorium Building, Chicago.

r Sir:

The Act of February 12th, 1873, contains the following pyisions

I MAN

"Sec.18. That upon the coins of the United States there all be the following devices and legends: Upon one side there will be an impression emblematic of liberty, with an inscription the word "Liberty" and the year of the coinage, etc."

This provision in my opinion forbids putting the year 1900 100 coins struck in 1899.

Respectably yours,

Director of the Mint.
